About

Muthoot Institute of Technology and Science (MITS) is promoted by Muthoot M. George Institute of Technology, a Section 25 Company within the Muthoot Group. MITS is a self financing technical institution offering postgraduate and undergraduate engineering programmes, situated in the industrial suburb of Kochi, close to the Smart City and Info Park, approximately 15 kms from Vytilla Junction towards Muvattupuzha on the Cochin Madurai National Highway.

The promoters with their commanding presence in the domains of Financial Services, Hospitality, Healthcare, Renewable Energy and Information Technology, are committed to building MITS as a centre of excellence, focusing purely on merit. This 'temple of learning' will provide to the students, state-of-the-art infrastructure, highly qualified and proficient teachers from various faculty of engineering and allied streams, embedded in a conducive environment where focus will be on their harmonious development.

Fort Kochi (/ˈkoʊtʃi/ KOH-chee, Malayalam: [foːɾɿ koˈtʃi]; Cochin Portuguese Creole: Cochim de Baixo, European Portuguese: [kuˈʃi ði ˈβaʃu]), formerly known as Fort Cochin or British Cochin<sup>[1]</sup> is a neighbourhood of Kochi city in Kerala, India. Fort Kochi takes its name from the Fort Manuel of Kochi,<sup>[2]</sup> the first European fort on Indian soil, controlled by the Portuguese East Indies.<sup>[3]</sup> This is part of a handful of water-bound islands and islets toward the south-west of the mainland Kochi, and collectively known as Old Kochi or West Kochi. Adjacent to this is the locality of Mattancherry. In 1967, these three municipalities along with a few adjoining areas, were amalgamated to form the Kochi Municipal Corporation.

Fort Kochi is rich in heritage and culture, and is a prominent tourist destination for both domestic and international travellers- being ranked as ninth among the top 25 in National Geographic's Top Tourist Destinations To Explore In 2020.<sup>[4]</sup>
